

Ecclesia- Serving Those Who Serve The Church

A project of Mount St. Mary's College Campus Ministry

You are invited to Spring workshops
at Mount St. Mary's College, Doheny campus

Rev. Felix Just S.J., Ph. D.

Take Up Your Cross and Follow Me:
Faithful Discipleship in the Gospel of Mark (Lectionary Year B)
Saturday, January 31, 2009. 9 a.m. to 4 p.m.

Mark's Gospel is read on many Sundays of 2009 (Lectionary Year B). But how does Mark's presentation of Jesus differ from that of Matthew, Luke, or John? In this oldest and shortest of the Gospels, Mark shows us Jesus as a suffering servant, but one who acts with urgency, power and authority, and calls us to a discipleship that includes the cross.

This one-day workshop will explore the distinctive features and themes of Mark's Gospel, with special attention to the passages in the Sunday Lectionary for Mass. The day will include lecture and discussion, art and music, and time for personal reflection and questions. If possible, read the Gospel of Mark in its entirety before coming, and don't forget to bring your Bible!

Prepare the Way of the Lord:
Lectionary Readings in Year B (the Year of Mark)
Saturday, February 7, 2009. 9 a.m. to 2:30 p.m.

Throughout many of the Sundays of 2009, we hear the Gospel of Mark. But what are the first and second readings and psalms of those Sundays? How were they chosen, what do they mean, and what is (or is not) their relationship to the Gospel readings?

Designed for preachers and lectors, and all lectionary-based catechists, this workshop will explore the other readings of Year B, which are proclaimed in the context of the Gospel of Mark. Although this workshop builds upon the previous week's workshop on Mark, it may also be taken independently. If you can, please read the Gospel of Mark in its entirety before coming, and don't forget to bring your Bible! If possible, bring along a lectionary as well.
